Elections

If the number of candidates does not exceed the number of seats to be filled, each candidate is declared elected.

(4) If the number of candidates exceeds the number of seats to be filled, an election must take place in accordance with the following provisions.

(5) Every lay person whose name is on the roll of the parish is entitled to vote in the election.

(6) Each person entitled to vote has as many votes as there are seats to be filled, but may not give more than one vote to the same candidate.

(7) Votes may be given by a show of hands; but if one or more persons object to that, each vote is to be given on a voting paper signed on the back by the voter.

(8) If there is an equality of votes, the election is decided by the drawing of a lot by the presiding officer.
